

Four nominated for top TGENA posts

Four people were nominated for the top offices of the Tower Grove East Neighborhood Association at Tuesday evening's September picnic meeting in Tower Grove Park. The meeting, originally set for Sept. 23, was rescheduled because of rain.

The nominees are:

--Tristan Mackenzie, for president. Mackenzie, co-owner of Heritage Properties, is currently serving as TGENA president.

-- Paul Pearson, for president-elect. Pearson is a software architect for Reinsurance Group of America.

--Mary Anne Pikrone, for secretary. Pikrone, a retired journalist, currently serves as secretary.

--Norah Ryan, for treasurer. Ryan, a retired lawyer, currently serves as treasurer.

Under the association's bylaws, nominations may still be made through Sunday, Oct. 4. To nominate a resident for one of the top positions, please send the name and background to tge.president@gmail.com

Elections will take place at this month's general membership meeting on Tuesday, Oct. 28, at 7 p.m. at Stray Dog Theatre, 2336 Tennessee Ave.
